

Supra Bread Pan Oil

Get the optimal release for your breads with our line of Supra Bread Pan Oils. Based on our knowledge of your bakery, we'll recommend the right oil for your application to produce the highest quality baked goods.

Quality Ingredients

We source only the highest grade ingredients and blend them to formulate our proprietary bread pan oils.

Superior Process

Our new production facility was built from the ground up to ensure only consistent, high-quality products leave through our doors. We've automated formulas and processes to make sure you get the exact release agent you need, when you need it.

Precise Blends

We offer a variety of formulas so you can find the exact oil you need for your bakery's size, production process, and baked goods.

Unbeatable Service

Receive consistent, on-the-ground support in your bakeries to optimize release agent usage and pan reglazing schedules. Minimize oil use to decrease costs, reduce equipment maintenance, and ensure a safe work environment.
